The portion of the Presbytery Books of Procedure that is based upon the CREC Council Book of Procedures will be updated in conformity with the Council Book of Procedures as it is updated.

Each Presbytery Moderator will ensure that the numbering of the Book of Procedures he is responsible for maintaining is consistent with the Council Book of Procedures, which will require the renumbering of Articles which appear only on a local basis.

Congregations seeking membership with the CREC which do not meet these criteria must come under the care of an existing CREC church and will be characterized as mission churches. Mission churches may have non-voting delegations at presbytery and council meetings. When such a mission church comes to meet the criteria for a particularized church, they may be accepted into voting membership of the CREC by a two-thirds vote of presbytery.

The Moderator and Moderator pro tempore shall be elected according to the procedure delineated in Article IV.F. of the CREC Constitution and By-laws.

Election of Moderator and Moderator pro tempore

1. If there are no nominations pre-posted on the agenda, the Moderator shall receive nominations from the floor from any delegate in order to create a roster of candidates.
2. In order for a nominee to be recognized as a candidate his nomination must be seconded on the floor and the nominee must express his consent to be a candidate. The nomination and second may not come from two delegates representing the same church.
3. In due time, the Moderator will close the nominations and identify the candidates. A motion from the floor to close nominations shall require a two-thirds vote.
4. The Moderator will invite open discussion about the candidates. Delegates may use this time to ask questions of the candidates or elicit statements from them. Delegates also may speak for or against any candidate.
5. A roll call vote will be taken unless by majority vote or at the Moderator’s discretion, a vote by ballot is requested. The candidate receiving a majority of votes will be elected Moderator. The outgoing Moderator will tally the votes and then shall declare the results of the election.

In elections with more than one candidate, a candidate must receive the votes of more than 50% of the delegates present and voting to become Moderator-elect. Motion 08:10:15:05 (Agenda Motion 28) Ecclesial Committee: As marked [old IV A] There are two broader assemblies in the CREC: the Presbytery and the Church Council. A minimum of two local churches is necessary to establish a presbytery (another term in common use is classis). Geographical boundaries of presbyteries may overlap, but in considering this presbyteries are urged to remember the law of Christ (Matt. 7:12; 3 John 9). A minimum of two presbyteries are necessary to form the council (Acts 16:4).

churches and to confer with other assemblies to this end; (i) to offer a timely pastoral voice to public issues of common concern; (j) to mediate in situations wherein a local church’s session is at an impasse and when a local church’s session is a party in a dispute either with one of its own members, with the session of another CREC church, with a CREC broader assembly, or with a non-CREC church; (k) to require mediation and non-binding arbitration, when appropriate, in order to reconcile brothers; (l) to protect its own purity and peace through judicial action following due process; (m) to censure or expel a member church following due process;

Main motion (08:10:15:08) carried by voice vote without dissent.

Motion 08:10:15:10 (Agenda Motion 30) Ecclesial Committee offered the following substitute motion:

Motion 08:01:15:11 (Agenda Motion 30) Ecclesial Committee: strike and replace as marked:

The Book of Procedures may be altered or amended at any time by a simple majority of an assembly. The various presbyteries may modify their respective Books of Procedures between meetings of council. Each meeting of council will review these various modifications and determine one uniform Book of Procedures for use by all the presbyteries harmonize the various Books of Procedures, in accordance with the provisions of the CREC Council Book of Procedures. Presbyteries may then approve further modifications for their own use, to be followed in turn by conciliar review. Maintenance and publication of a current Book of Procedures is the responsibility of the moderator.

If no nominations are received prior to the posting of the agenda, nominations may be made from the floor of the assembly. Upon the establishment of a new presbytery, the Council shall assign a year to begin the three-year rotation for the election of the Minister of that presbytery. The presbytery shall have the discretion to have its first moderator serve one or two additional years in order to meet this rotation requirement.

First, between meetings of the broader assembly, the moderator represents the broader assembly by initiating and taking prudent steps in furtherance of an action, which he must report to the broader assembly for ratification. In this way, the moderator represents the broader assembly for any action empowered to that assembly by this constitution, except for the following: admitting members; amending confessional or governmental standards; making formal recommendations regarding ministerial candidates for ordination; removing a member church; requiring arbitration; and adjudicating a trial.

Second, as representative of presbytery or council, the moderator has the authority to encourage and spiritually strengthen the sessions of elders within his broader assembly, meet with the moderators of other broader assemblies, both within and without the CREC, to encourage them or to be encouraged, and to inquire about the spiritual and doctrinal health of other broader assemblies as well as the churches within his own assembly.

Third, moderators are to act according to the authority conferred to them by virtue of their office, and all their actions are to be confined and limited to the authority specified by the Constitution of the CREC, and they shall report to presbytery or council on their work as spokesman and representative. Additionally, prior to a Minister censuring a CREC church or officer he must receive approval from two other Ministers.

Council Minister Booth re-assumed the Chair.

Motion 08:10:15:25 Anselm Presbytery: Amend the Council Book of Procedures by including the following definitions at a location to be determined by the new Council Minister:

PRESENT

An item (e.g., committee report, correspondence, etc) is “presented” to the assembly when a delegate reads or, as appropriate, summarizes or describes the item to the assembly and hands it to the presiding officer or secretary. (Based on Robert’s Rules ¶53.)

RECEIVE

A report or other item is “received” by the assembly when it is presented it to the assembly as specified in these definitions. (Based on Robert’s Rules ¶¶ 53-54). It is not necessary to move to “receive” a presented item, for it has already been “received.” (Ibid.) “Receiving” an item does not indicate approval, endorsement, or adoption by the assembly.

ADOPT

When the assembly wishes to approve and endorse assembly minutes or the factual findings or opinions of a committee as set forth in a report, or when the assembly wishes to implement the recommendations or resolutions of a committee as set forth in a report, the proper motion is to “adopt” the minutes or specified portion(s) of the report. If a committee report contains statements of fact or opinion which are only for the assembly’s information, the assembly may simply “receive” the report, unless the assembly wishes to endorse and assume responsibility for the statements, in which case the assembly should “adopt” them. (Based on Robert’s Rules ¶¶ 33, 54.)

RATIFY

When the assembly wishes to confirm the action(s) of a moderator under paragraph IV. J., or to make valid a past action by an officer, committee, or delegate which requires prior approval of the assembly, the proper motion is to “ratify” the action. By definition, the assembly may ratify only such actions of its moderators, officers, committees, or delegates as it had the right to authorize in advance. (Based on Robert’s Rules ¶ 39.)

MEDIATION DRAFT
The attempt to settle a dispute through the active participation of a third party (the “mediator”) who works with disputing parties to clear up misunderstandings, heal offenses, find points of agreement, and persuade them to agree on a fair and just resolution. The role of mediator may be performed by an individual or a committee.

NON-BINDING ARBITRATION
An informal mini-trial conducted by a third party or panel in an attempt to assist disputing parties to more objectively assess the respective merit of their positions and the likely outcome of a formal trial. The outcome of non-binding arbitration is advisory only.

The motion (08:10:15:25) passed by voice vote with no dissent.

Pastor Booth exhorted the assembled to ensure that all presbytery delegates be in attendance in time for the new presbytery meetings in the morning.

The delegates were addressed by Pastor Alexander Orlov-Koschavka (San Sanych) of the Bible Church of Rovno, Ukraine.

Ministers Strawbridge, Booth and Wilson prayed over Pastor Orlov-Koschavka and anointed him with oil in accordance with James 5:14-15.

The meeting was recessed with the singing of the Doxology by the assembly.

Thursday, October 16, 2008

The meeting was called to order at 8:30 am by Minister Booth, with the singing of “O Love, How Deep, How Broad, How High” and a prayer of invocation by Gene Helsel.

Pastor Booth requested and received unanimous consent to add a motion regarding the CREC sponsoring men as military chaplains.

Motion 08:10:16:01 (Agenda Motion 34) Ecclesial Committee: Insert the bold language into the Constitution, as follows:

1. [old IV M] Issues relating to the local congregation which may lawfully be brought before the broader assemblies are specified in this section. All matters not itemized here must be adjudicated and resolved at the level of the local church. Before any appeal is made, a matter must be first addressed at the local church level. Appeal may be made (1) when the session of elders is accused by two or more of the church members of participating in or tolerating grievous dishonesty in subscription to the doctrinal or constitutional standards of the local church; or, (2) when the session of elders is accused by two or more of the church members of gross misbehavior. In any case where at least two witnesses are from the same household, three witnesses are required to hear the case. When such accusations of grievous dishonesty or gross misbehavior on the part of the session of a local church are made to elders or pastors from other local churches or to the moderator of presbytery or council, the session under accusation must be promptly informed. However, pastors and elders must reject irresponsible accusations and direct the member making the complaint to his own session. The broader assemblies must refuse to hear frivolous or unconstitutional appeals. Appeals to council do not necessarily have to first be heard by presbytery. However, council may choose to remand the case to presbytery.

The motion (08:10:16:01) carried by voice vote with no dissent.

Motion 08:10:16:02 (Agenda Motion 34) Ecclesial Committee: Strike and insert language as marked [old IV O] The decisions of the assemblies with regard to the local congregation are spiritually authoritative, but practically advisory. If the elders of a particular congregation choose to refuse the instruction of the broader church, they may do so without deprivation of property. However, if their disregard of godly counsel is particularly egregious, they may be removed from membership in the CREC, in accordance with Section M and O constitutional procedure.

The motion (08:10:16:02) carried by voice vote with no dissent.

Minister Booth struck Agenda Motion 35 as redundant

Motion 08:10:16:03 (Agenda Motion 36) Ecclesial Committee: New text (bold) proposed by Ecclesial Committee.

1. [old IV D] The presbytery will have a stated annual meeting. If two-thirds of the churches submit a written request to the moderator, an ad hoc presbytery meeting will be called. The decision to call for an ad hoc meeting of the presbytery cannot be made at presbytery.

[old IV E] The council will have a stated meeting every three years. In the year that the council meets, presbyteries must have their annual meeting at the same place and time. If two-thirds of the presbyteries submit a written request to the moderator of the council, an ad hoc council meeting can be called. The decision to call for an ad hoc meeting of the council cannot be made at council. The requirement that presbyteries convene at the same place and time as council does not apply to ad hoc meetings of council.

Motion 08:10:16:04 (Agenda Motion 37) Ecclesial Committee: New text (bold) proposed by Ecclesial Committee.

2. [old V A] Broader assemblies act properly when either (a) in a duly constituted meeting, the measure is moved, seconded, carried by the appropriate number of votes, entered in the minutes, and approved in the minutes; or (b) the act is declared in writing by the moderator and then included in the moderator’s written report to the next duly constituted meeting of the broader assembly. At the meeting, the moderator’s report must be received by the broader assembly, and his actions reviewed and voted upon, and either ratified or not ratified, with the results recorded as such in the approved minutes.

The motion (08:10:16:04) carried by voice vote with no dissent.

Motion 08:10:16:05 (Agenda Motion 37) Ecclesial Committee:

3. [old IV G] At votes of the broader assemblies, each delegate has one vote. The Minister may not vote, and so in those cases when a church has only one vote because one of their delegates has been elected Minister, the church may put forth a new delegate to take the place of the Minister. If the church cannot put forth a replacement, the remaining delegate has two votes.

4. [reworded from old V B and IV I] Amending the agenda in stated meetings requires a two-thirds majority vote. The agenda for ad hoc meetings may include only those issues related to the stated reasons for calling the meeting.

The agenda of any stated Presbytery or Council meeting must be posted on the public electronic page maintained by that assembly’s Minister no less than thirty days and no more than sixty days prior to the meeting.

When revised, these documents shall be posted on or linked to the CREC web page within thirty days of their revision. Whenever new presbyteries are formed, the responsibility for the archives of the predecessor presbyteries remains with the new presbyteries having the same name. That Council adopt the proposed Guidelines and incorporate them into the CREC Book of Procedures. Future proposals to form new presbyteries in the CREC shall, to the greatest extent feasible, conform to these Guidelines:

2. Guidelines for Formation of New Presbyteries

- The optimum size of a presbytery in the CREC shall be ten churches;
- When a presbytery exceeds a membership of twenty churches, it shall begin taking steps to propose to Council the formation of a new presbytery, except as necessary, after giving due consideration to the existing condition and strength of its constituent churches, the presbytery deems it unwise to propose division at that time. In this case, presbytery shall report said decision to Council;
- The factors to be considered in forming new presbyteries shall include the following:
  - to the extent feasible, each new presbytery should contain at least ten churches;
  - each new presbytery should include members that have long ministerial experience (graybeards);
  - each new presbytery should contain members that have a good working acquaintance with CREC culture;
  - each new presbytery should contain some churches of significant size (not all small churches);
  - the churches of each new presbytery should share geographic proximity, and have historic connections to one another;
  - the preference of international churches (and domestic churches if circumstances warrant), should be given significant weight when assigning them to a particular presbytery.
